Tradition and Modernity*
VIth Edition

October 22-23, 2015,
Tîrgu Mureş, Romania

The International Conference European Integration between Tradition and Modernity reaches its VIth edition in 2015.

Derived from the will to analyse long-term cultural, political, economic and social processes that led to European integration, this periodic event has become, over the years, a good meeting opportunity of specialists in diverse fields of science.

Philologists, literary critics, historians, archaeologists, political scientists, economists, lawyers, experts in international relations and in communication sciences, computer scientists, mathematicians are all invited to submit their contributions to the conference sections:

- Romanian Language
- Romanian Literature
- English Language and Literature
- French Language and Literature
- History
- Political Sciences and International Relations
- Communication and Public Relations
- Computer Sciences and Mathematics
